EDUCATOR SPOTLIGHT

Peaslee Neighborhood Center offers piano lessons to students of all ages and abilities, with a priority given to low-income individuals and families. Peaslee provides a music program that enables a student to acquire and develop skills needed to play the piano, personal creative expression, musicianship and self-discipline. Our dedicated, caring teachers—David Engle, Atarah Jablonsky, Roxanne Engle and Terry Thorman, SC provide one-on-one instruction and a variety of performance opportunities, from recitals to concerts at local nursing homes.

PIANO PROGRAM

Our Piano Program's fall semester launches the week of September 7th. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons, students will come for half-hour instruction and encouragement to practice, practice, practice throughout the week. From six-year-olds who can barely reach the pedals to grandparents who couldn't afford lessons as a child, piano students fall in love with the joy of self-expression through dedication to acquiring a key musical skill.

PARTNERS

Thanks to the generosity of the Keyboard Club of Cincinnati and the Matinee Musicale Endowment Fund, Peaslee is able to offer piano lessons at greatly reduced cost—as little as $4 per week. This support also allows us to welcome Nathaniel Minor to the Piano team and six new openings for piano lessons! Removing the economic barriers to access to quality musical education opens up the proven benefits of this activity to all.

"I just think Over-The-Rhine wouldn't be what it is today without the activism and groundwork of women daily figuring out ways to bring quality of life to wherever they're living or working."
-Bonnie Neumeier

"Don't do art like someone else, do art like yourself."
-June Alexander

"What makes Peaslee great is you, and me, and all the individuals who come together understanding it takes a village. This is our village. And we are responsible. Come dance with us!"
-Jai Washington
